

Recruitment for the Georgina Heritage Register Review Ad Hoc Working Group

The Town of Georgina invites people to volunteer in their community as a member of the following working group. The term of the working group will begin in July 2024 and run to January 1, 2025. Given the responsibilities of the working group and the time limited nature of the project, current and past members of the Georgina Heritage Advisory Committee and the Georgina Historical Society are encouraged to apply.

The Georgina Heritage Register Review Ad Hoc Working Group

The purpose of the Heritage Register Review Ad Hoc Working Group is to assist Town staff and the Heritage Consultant in obtaining any necessary background information and historical/local context as part of the Town's review and update of the Municipal Heritage Register.
